2. SANKALP-2023

Universal School of administration Bengaluru is proud to offer three years of free degree education, a pioneering initiative that underscores the vital role of accessible higher education in societal advancement. To realise this objective the Institution has launched Sankalp a move that is significant for several reasons, both for individual students and the broader community.

Firstly, free higher education democratizes access to learning. By removing financial barriers, it ensures that students from all socioeconomic backgrounds can pursue their academic and career aspirations. This inclusivity promotes a more diverse student body, enriching the learning environment with varied perspectives and experiences.

Quality education is not just about access but also about the caliber of instruction and resources. Universal School of administration is committed to maintaining high educational standards, ensuring that the free degree programs are on par with those offered for a fee. This includes employing experienced faculty, offering up-to-date curricula, and providing state-of-the-art facilities. Such a commitment ensures that students receive a robust education that equips them with the necessary skills and knowledge to excel in their fields.

Moreover, the economic impact of free higher education is profound. Graduates who are not burdened by student debt are more likely to contribute positively to the economy, invest in further education, and engage in entrepreneurial activities. This can lead to a more dynamic and innovative economic landscape.

Finally, this initiative fosters a culture of learning and growth. When education is freely accessible, it emphasizes the importance of lifelong learning and continuous improvement, which are crucial in today's rapidly changing world.

In conclusion, the Sankalp by Universal School of administration a provision of three years of free degree education is a transformative step towards ensuring equitable, high-quality education for all. It holds the promise of significant individual and societal benefits, paving the way for a more educated, innovative, and inclusive future.

4. Blood Donation Camp

Universal School of Administration has been organizing Blood Donation Camp every year in association with RR Medical College Bengaluru. The aim of this camp is to save life of people who badly required the blood during emergency.

Blood donation camp was organized by NSS unit, Bangalore University.

On 28th February 2023 Blood donation camp was organized by NSS unit, Bangalore university in collaboration with Indian Youth Red Cross Wing Bangalore. Dr SM Jayakara (vice- chancellor Bangalore university), Shyam Sundar (Red cross Blood Donation Coordinator) and Dr Ravish (NSS Coordinator Bangalore University) Inaugurated the camp through which more than 14 units of blood was donated by NSS Volunteers of Universal School of Administration. It is a way of Universal School of Administration; It is a ray of hope to contribute to the serious problems of acutes shortage of blood. India faces a blood shortage of 3 million units. The problem can be addressed if an additional two percent of Indians donate blood, as opened by the Health experts. We need 12 million units of blood every year but just about nine million units are being donated. Bangalore University has been religiously organizing blood donation camp and students of Universal School of Administration come forward voluntarily to donate blood under the mentorship of Dr. Rama Krishnappa (NSS Faculty Coordinator Universal School of Administration).

Blood donation can save lives of innumerable persons. Donation of blood is very critical and crucial for saving lives many patients and those who have met with accidents. It is as such a great service or contribution to the society and people living in it. Donors were be awarded by Red cross Certificates by Shri R Upendra Shetty, Chairman of Universal Group of Institutions, Principal of Universal School of Administration.
